

CREATIVE MELANGE AT ST. MARK'S SR. SEC. PUBLIC SCHOOL, JANAKPURI, NEW DELHI

Transformation of creativity into visual delight has been the main endeavour of Annual Inter School On The Spot Painting Competition which was organized for the sixteen consecutive year on 7th of Nov.'2015. Providing the right pedestal at every level of expression by stirring imagination amongst school going children has been the main aim of the school.

A well known artist and recipient of various awards & honors like Triennale India International Award and the Saatchi Gallery London, Your Studio Award Mr. Prem Singh a member of General Council at Lalit Kala Academy and advisory committee at National Gallery of Modern Art, New Delhi , was the Chief Guest for the day and the Guest of Honor was Sh. Rajesh Rishi - MLA Janakpuri Constituency. Chairman Mr. T. P. Aggarwal , Director Ms. Anjali Aggarwal, Manager Mr. Rahul Aggarwal presented memento and souvenirs to the guests present. Principal Ms. Rama Sethi welcomed the august gathering on the occasion, Vice Principal / Convener Ms. Alka Kher appreciated the participation of more than 61 schools from Delhi and NCR providing an insight into the successful dimensions of art carried forward for the last fifteen years.

A gallery of previous year's prize winning paintings, was displayed to encourage the philosophy of art & enhance the students cognitive exploration which was appreciated by all.

A team of renowned artists comprising of Mr. Rajesh Sharma and Mr. Vigyan Vrat judged the paintings made by around 1500 participants. The distinguished guests gave their signatures on canvas as remembrance on the occasion.