EDITORIAL

Life is not a bed of roses. A man's journey is full of ups and downs. He has to encounter difficulties and hardships at some stage of his life. Therefore, in order to live happily and freely, a man must have a sense of humour. This humour can lighten his burden as well as take away all his worries for a little while. The best person in the world is the one who doesn't laugh at others but laughs with others and has the ability to laugh at himself also. This ability is a rare gift. Some people are so self-conscious that they cannot take a joke at their expense. They are always serious and make life doubly hard for themselves because of their inability to see humour. A great person is able to laugh at absurd and illogical things. He does not allow life to steal his cheerful laughter. He is a lively and cheerful person who is undoubtedly loved by all. A man with a sense of humour will definitely sail through life with less difficulties than a man who is always serious and tense. Humour has a great practical value. It helps to maintain mental balance and gain friends. These two things are very essential for happiness.

'Humour is the salt of life'- as it adds a fantastic flavour which helps a person to swallow bitter realities of life with a smile.

JHANKAR- THE CELEBRATION OF DANCE

East meets West- beautiful fusion

"To dance is to be out of yourself. Larger, more beautiful, more powerful. This is power, it is glory on earth and it is yours for the taking." Agnes de Mille

A Dance Festival 'Jhankar' was held in our school on 12.3.2013, in which approximately 300 primary students participated. The programme started by paying a tribute to Goddess Saraswati which was followed by various dances presented by our dance enthusiasts. The audience not only savoured classical dances such as Bharatnatyam, Kathak and Manipuri, but also enjoyed western dances such as Ballet and Salsa. The festival also included International Folk dances like the Peacock dance of China, the Arabian and the Lithuanian dance.

This was followed by 'Taal'-an Indo Western fusion dance. The celebration of 100 years of Hindi cinema was the real treat to the eyes of the audience as they witnessed three performances each of the black and white era, the coloured era, the golden period and the modern period. The transformation from the 40's to the 21st century left the audience awestruck. The finale was a tribute to the great showman 'Raj Kapoor'. The programme ended with the rendering of a beautiful and melodious song 'We are the world' by the school choir. The audience was mesmerized by the entire programme and the hall reverberated with their whole hearted appreciation.
