

Fake News and Social Media

Social media has become the torchbearer of news. The students of classes ninth and tenth attended a Generation Global Video Conference on the topic “Fake News and Social Media”. The students discussed various incidents where fake news was spread and the ways to stop fake news from spreading on personal level. They also engaged in a fruitful dialogue on disadvantages of social media. Later, they asked each other questions on the same.